New Dates of PackEx India 2015: September 14 –16, 2015, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi

Overwhelming response from the packaging material and technology suppliers and food & drink processing technology suppliers lead to the change of dates of PackEx India 2015 and its concurrent trade fairs - International FoodTec India, Sweet & SnackTec India and Dairy Universe India.

September 14 – 16, 2015 are the new dates of PackEx India 2015 and its concurrent trade fairs. Due to surge in the demand for exhibition space the organizing team has decided to increase the exhibition to one more hall in Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. In 2015, this exhibition will be organized in Halls 11, 12 & 12A of Pragati Maidan.

This development will increase the exhibition area by almost 80% from the initial planned area. The exhibition will spread across 3 column-less halls of Pragati Maidan, New Delhi with a combined exhibition space of 12500 sq. mt.

The kind of participation response being received from the industry sectors clearly demonstrate the acceptance of the decision of Koelnmesse to organize PackEx India and its concurrent trade fairs in New Delhi every alternate years.

Once organized, this mega trade fair will be the largest B2B exhibition on packaging industry and food and drink industry, which New Delhi has never seen before. It is expected to attract over 350 exhibitors from over 30 countries and over 11,000 trade visitors from India and abroad – predominantly from the Indian sub-continent.

Koelnmesse YA Tradefair Pvt. Ltd., the Indian subsidiary of Koelnmesse GmbH, Germany extends invitation to all the stakeholders of food and drink industry and packaging industry to be a part of important business platform.
